

PRESIDENT PROMISES GREAT BUSINESS BOOM

GIVES FINAL ANSWER TO OPPONENTS OF TRUST LEGISLATION

Wilson Declares That When Anti-Trust Legislation Program is Passed Business Will be Given its Constitution of Freedom and "There Will Be a Boom in This Country Such as We Have Never Witnessed in the United States."

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Under a new constitution of freedom for business given by anti-trust legislation soon to be passed by congress, President Wilson, today promised the country the greatest business boom in its history. This was the president's final answer to the opponents of trust legislation at this session of congress and to prophets of evil times, delivered with determined expression and every word emphasized with a clenched fist.

"We know what we are doing," Mr. Wilson said; "we propose to do it under the advice, for we have been fortunate enough to obtain the advice of men who understand the business of the country and we know that the effect is going to be exactly what the effect of the currency reform was, a sense of relief and security."

The president spoke to a group of Virginia editors in the east room of the white house, but his assurances were intended for the country. There was every indication that the speech was meant to be the most important of the administration. News of the failure of the H. B. Claffin company in New York had reached the white house earlier in the day but the president did not mention the incident. The president told the editors he would insist that his anti-trust program be passed at the present session of congress and that his information was behind him. Declaring that the United States was now on the verge of a very strong business revival, the president added that a temporary business depression at present was sure to pass as soon as business realized that the anti-trust legislation is sure to be enacted.

Business Long Uneasy.
For ten years, the president said, business has been uneasy because of attacks on it. He intended that his administration was the first in years that had been the real friend of business and he added that his administration was going to prove its friendship by clearing away all anxiety among business men, over what he called "the cloud."

Some people think that the anti-trust legislation will be postponed," said the president as he advanced a step, "well it will not be postponed." His jaws snapped. "It will not be postponed, because we are the real friends of business and are ready to give business its new constitution of freedom."

The speech in part follows: "I think it is appropriate to say a word in assistance of my judgment about the existing conditions. You are largely responsible for the state of public opinion. You furnish the public with information and in your editorials you furnish it with the interpretation of that information."

"We are in the presence of a business situation which is variously interpreted. Here in Washington through instrumentalities at our disposal and through a correspondence which comes into us from all parts of the nation we are perhaps in a position to judge of the actual condition of business better than those can judge who are at any other single point in the country; and I want to say to you that as a matter of fact the signs of a very strong business revival are becoming more and more evident from day to day."

Poor Conditions for Ten Years.
"I want to suggest this to you: business has been in a feverish and apprehensive condition in this country for more than ten years; and as a natural consequence as the volume of criticism has increased, business has been growing more and more anxious. Business men have acted as some men do who fear they will have to undergo an operation, and who are not sure that when they get on the table the operation will not be a capital operation. As a matter of fact as the diagnosis has progressed it has become more evident that no capital operation was necessary, that at the most a minor operation was necessary to remove admitted distempers and evils."

"The treatment is to be constitutional, rather than surgical, affecting habits of life and action which have been hurtful. For on all hands it is admitted that there are processes of business or have been processes of business in this country which ought to be corrected but the correction has been postponed and in proportion to the postponement the fever has increased—the fever of apprehension."

"There is nothing more fatal to business than to be kept guessing whether something serious is going to happen to it or not and what in particular is going to happen to it if anything does. It is impossible to forecast the prospects of any line of business unless you know what the year is going to bring forth."

"The guessing went on for ten years and more. Then came an administration which for the first time had a definite program of constructive correction; not of destructive correction, but of a constructive correction of admitted evils—as far as possible in a general program, in its particulars as well as in its

SHERIFF SERVES PAPERS ON "HOPPING HAL" CHASE

Former White Sox Player Will Be Restrained From Playing With Any Federal League Team in New York, at Least Temporarily.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 25.—Sheriff Becker walked out on the Federal league diamond today at the end of the second inning of the game between Buffalo and Pittsburgh and served Hal Chase with papers in a temporary injunction suit secured by President Comiskey of the Chicago American league team, restraining Chase from playing with any Federal league in this state.

A large crowd was present to see Buffalo's new first baseman in action and there was some hissing mingled with cheers when the sheriff served the papers on him. The former White Sox player retired to the bench.

Attorneys for the Buffalo team said tonight that he would probably go before Judge Hooley of the supreme court, who issued the injunction, and seek to have it quashed.

The validity of the ten day clause in the American league contract will be the point upon which the case will hinge.

general features. And the administration proceeded to carry out this program.

Reviews Recent Reforms.
"First there was the tariff and business shivered. 'We don't like to go in; the water looks cold'; but when the tariff had been passed it was found that the readjustment was possible without any serious disturbance whatever. So that men said 'with a sense of relief, well, we are glad to get that behind us and it wasn't bad after all.'"

"Then came the currency reform. You remember with what resistance a large body of bankers in this country met the proposals of that reform and you know how, immediately after its passage, they recognize its benefit and its beneficence and how since the passage of that reform bankers throughout the United States have been congratulating themselves that it was possible to carry out this great reform upon sensible and solid lines."

"Then we advanced to the trust program and again the same dread, the same hesitation, the same urgency, that the thing should be postponed. It will not be postponed; and it will not be postponed because we are the friends of business."

"Because when the program is finished, it is finished; the interrogation points are rubbed off the slate; business is given its constitution of freedom and is under no forward under a cloud."

And just as soon as it gets that leave and freedom there will be a boom in this country such as we have never witnessed in the United States."

Longer Agitation Fatal.
"I, as a friend of business and a servant of the country, would not stop on this program and bring on another long period of agitation. Agitation longer continued would be fatal to the business of this country. I could not ask this country to excuse a policy which subjected business to a longer continued agitation and uncertainty and, therefore, I am sure that it is beginning to be evident to the whole press of this country and by the same token to the people, that a constructive program is at last not only to be postponed but completed and that when it is completed business can get and will get what it can get in no other way—rest, recuperation and successful adjustment."

"I can not get rest if you send me to bed wondering what is going to happen to me in the morning; but if you send me to bed knowing what the course of business is to be tomorrow morning I can get rest. How much better is certain justice to the men engaged in business."

"It is a matter of conscience as well as a matter of large public policy, to do what this congress, I am now certain is going to do, finish the program. And I do not think that it is going to take a very long time."

During the day the president had received a letter signed by Champ Clark of the house and all the Democratic representatives from Missouri pledging him their support in his campaign for anti-trust legislation. He replied expressing thanks and in its particulars as well as in its

FIRE DEVASTATES "OLD WITCH CITY"

ONE THOUSAND BUILDINGS ARE DESTROYED IN HISTORIC SALEM

More Than 10,000 People Are Homeless, Half the City in Ruins, and Property Loss of $7,000,000 as Result of Explosion Which Starts Fire in Massachusetts Town.

SALEM, Mass., June 25.—Nearly half the "old witch city" of Salem, rich in historic buildings and tradition, was devastated today and tonight by a fire that caused an estimated loss of $20,000,000, destroyed one thousand buildings, including a score of manufacturing establishments and made 20,000 of the 45,000 residents homeless.

Fire Spreads Rapidly.
"Burning embers, carried by a strong wind, started fires in two other sections, the fashionable residential district adjacent to LaFayette street, and a manufacturing and tenement house district on the peninsula bounded by Palmers Cove, South River and the water front.

Late in the evening brands kindled a fourth fire in the plane of the Salem Oil company. A terrific explosion occurred when the oil tanks blew up and showers of sparks fell threateningly on a part of the town that before had not been in imminent danger.

This fire, however, was checked after it had destroyed the oil company's plant and thirteen houses. When the flames were believed to be under control at 11 o'clock tonight the historic and literary landmarks had escaped destruction. The included the Peabody Museum, Essex Institute, Old Custom House where Nathaniel Hawthorne did much of his literary work, and "the house of the seven gables," made famous by the novelist.

No fatalities had been reported up to mid-night. Some fifty injured persons were received at the hospitals. Thousands of the homeless were camped on Salem Common tonight and the city was patrolled by military men. The fire destroyed hundreds of residences in the district, including many of the homes on the most fashionable thoroughfares in Salem.

The city orphan asylum on LaFayette street sheltering 150 persons, was destroyed. All the children were taken by nuns to a place of safety. The Salem Hospital was the next prey of the flames. St. Joseph church, a huge new brick structure with lofty twin towers, and the joining school and convent buildings recently erected at a cost of $250,000, made ready fuel.

Calls for assistance had been sent to nearby cities and a enormous quantity of apparatus responded. With more than 10,000 persons homeless, half the city in ruins and a loss estimated at from $6,000,000 to $7,000,000 the fire that began early this afternoon was believed to be under control at a late hour tonight.

Starting at two o'clock as the result of an explosion in the Kern Leather Company plant, the flames spread in all directions defying all efforts of the firemen.

Block after block was dynamited but the fire, checked in one direction was driven by shifting winds into new paths of destruction.

At the start the water pressure was low and when the fight became desperate, a great water main near Beverly bridge broke, leaving the firemen practically helpless. Meanwhile calls for assistance were rushed to nearby cities and an enormous quantity of apparatus responded, only to find that there was no water to check the progress of the flames.

Fire Brands Start Second Fire.
Late tonight fire brands carried into the business section to the north started a second fire at North street. A little later a tank of the Standard Oil Company in the extreme northwest of the city was ablaze and presently a third fire was leveling the buildings in that vicinity.

No definite estimate of the money loss is possible tonight but it was variously placed at from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000. The burned buildings include the plans of a score of manufacturing companies, among them the big factory of the Nauvau cotton mills, twice as many business places, St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, recently erected at a cost of a quarter of a million dollars, the Orphan Asylum and more than 200 residences and tenement buildings. Among these residences were costly colonial homes. A determined effort was made to stop the fire at the Boston and Maine railroad station close to the center of the city. Several garages were dynamited after a tower in the railroad yard was burned.

The entire section occupied by the Italian and Greek colonies was devastated. Most of the 2,000 persons who had homes in that district were housed temporarily at the Y. M. C. A. building, the state armory, police stations and other public buildings.

All roads leading out of the city were crowded with refugees, on foot, in automobiles and all sorts of conveyances. Many carried all they had saved of their household possessions wrapped in sheets and shawls over their shoulders.

FLIES OVER MT. WHITNEY.
Independence, Cal., June 25.—Silas Christofferson, in a bi-plane today, flew over the peak of Mount Whitney, 14,898 feet high. He attained an altitude of 15,728 feet and established, it is contended, a new American altitude record.

BELIEVE GUNMEN ARE AFTER PRESIDENT, MOYER

Officials Think Gunners From Butte Are in Helena to Take the Life of Head of Western Federation of Miners.

Helena, Mont., June 25.—Police and sheriff's officials are convinced that gunmen from Butte are in Helena to assassinate Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, who fled from Butte during the rioting in that city Tuesday night. Three suspects were arrested here and police are endeavoring to locate a fourth. Moyer is being guarded by sheriff's deputies and by members of the "refuge colony" of Butte miners who accompanied him to Helena. The federation president was advised by friends in Butte that men had left for Helena to attack him.

Resumes Normal Conditions.
Butte, Mont., June 25.—This city, after two days of rioting, caused by internal strife in the local union of the Western Federation of Miners, resumed normal conditions today. All mines were working and the saloons, which had been ordered closed after the riots of Tuesday, went on a twenty-four hour basis once more. Progress was made in organizing a committee of citizens.

No statement was issued by the committee which will work in secret. The chairman of the committee announced that as soon as organization was completed the first step will be aimed at Mayor Duncan whose removal from office will be demanded on charges that he permitted the recent rioting. The discharge of the police force in a body also may be asked. The newly organized independent union of miners announced that its first regular meeting will be held next Tuesday.

The union announced that more than one thousand miners had signed for membership.

AMERICA NEEDS MISSIONARIES

Missionary Declares There Are Fewer Religious People in America Than in India.

Chicago, June 25.—"Society owes its existence to foreign missionary enterprise," Dr. William Brown, former missionary to the Philippines, declared in an address tonight.

"We commonly think missions are good for the heathen but not intended for Americans," said the speaker, "on the ground that missions are meant primarily for the heathen alone. But on that assumption the most needy help is America, where there are fewer religious people than in India. A child born in India is sure to be brought up in harmony with their peculiar religious belief than in richly favored America."

The need of a more humanitarian viewpoint of life was urged upon some Christian workers by Fred B. Smith of New York, who addressed the adult conferences.

In some cities every problem from the tin cans in the alley to the chimneys in the belfry is laid at the church door for solution," he said. "And if we would pay more attention to the cans in the alley than to the chimneys, we would get better results."

Dunne, Adjutant General Dickson and other members of the governor's staff left at five o'clock this afternoon for Danville, where late tonight they will board the special Illinois Central train for Atlanta, Ga., on their way to Kennesaw Mountain, where on Saturday they will participate in the ceremonies attending the unveiling of a monument erected in memory of the Illinois soldiers who died in the battle of Kennesaw Mountain. They will return to Springfield on Monday. During the time that the governor is away Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara will act as chief executive.

NO RELIEF FROM HEAT IN KANSAS AND MISSOURI

KANSAS CITY, June 25.—No relief from the heat in Kansas and western Missouri came today and records for the year once more were shattered. Junction City, Kan., reported a temperature of 103 degrees, the record for the season in the state. Half a dozen other Kansas towns saw the mercury pass the 100 degree mark. One death due to the heat was reported from Osborne, Kans.

THREE DEATHS IN ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, June 25.—Three deaths caused by the heat were reported to the police today. Several persons were prostrated. The maximum official temperature was 98. On the street, however, the mercury went several degrees above the 100 mark.

AWAIT INSTRUCTIONS FROM GEN. CARRANZA

CONSTITUTIONALIST WILL MAKE DEFINITE HIS POSITION AT MONTEREY

Agents, Awaiting Final Instructions Regarding the Invitation Extended Them for Informal Conferences With U. S. and Huerta Delegates, Expect to Hear From Their Commander Within a Few Days.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Agents of the Mexican constitutionalists in Washington tonight awaited final instructions from Gen. Carranza regarding the invitation extended for their participation in informal conferences with representatives of the United States and the Huerta government on plans to complete the pacification of Mexico. Gen. Carranza telegraphed his representatives here early in the day as he left Saltillo that he would make definite his position upon reaching Monterey. He was expected in Monterey late today and his agents hoped to receive instructions as to their future movements by morning. From Monterey it was reported Gen. Carranza planned to proceed to Nuevo Laredo, where he would be in direct telegraphic communication with Washington. This was taken as an assurance that the invitation to the constitutionalists to participate in informal mediation over Mexico's internal affairs would be accepted. Gen. Villa's victory at Zacatecas is declared to have ironed out all the rough edges in the constitutionalist ranks. Villa for military aggression, Carranza to direct diplomatic negotiations, was declared to be the alignment of the revolutionary forces agreed upon.

With this internal dispute settled it was declared here that there could be no doubt that the first chief of the constitutionalists would agree to meet the representatives of the United States and those of the Huerta government, particularly in the light of the fact that the triumph at Zacatecas gave the revolutionary forces the whip hand for complete recognition in the organization of the provisional government to supplant Huerta.

MEDIATORS ARE RESTING.

Niagara Falls, June 25.—As it will probably be several days before the mediators are called upon to take any further action in relation to the Mexican problem, Ambassador Da Gama of Brazil left tonight to join Mrs. Da Gama at Long Branch, N. J., for a few days. Minister Suarez of Chile probably will depart tomorrow or Saturday. Minister Naon of Argentina will remain here to greet the constitutionalist representatives and introduce them to the Huerta delegates, should this today from the constitutionalist delegation. It is not known when the members will reach here. It is presumed that upon the arrival of Fernando Iglesias Calderon in Washington he will confer with S. Luis Cabrera, Rafael Zubaran and Jose Vasconcelos before they enter into negotiations with the Huerta delegates who are here. Mr. Calderon has just come from long association with the constitutionalists at the headquarters of Gen. Carranza and is supposed to possess intimate details of the posture of the leaders of the revolutionary movement.

All of the members of the mediation colony are not agreed that disposition of the international questions to the satisfaction of the American and Huerta delegates assures the adjustment of the Mexican problem as a whole, although the prevailing feeling is optimistic. The mediators and Huerta and American delegates hope that the constitutionalists will consent to have their meeting here. This matter will be decided in all probability before Sunday or Monday. It is not unlikely that the constitutionalists will select Buffalo for their headquarters during the conference.

TRIAL OF TONY PETRAS IS PROCEEDING SLOWLY

Only Five Tentative Jurymen Have Been Selected of the 185 Examined.

Geneva, Ill., June 25.—Wealthy residents of Kane county who spend their winters in the south will be sought to try Anthony Petras charged with having clubbed to death Theresa Hollander last February. The first four days of the trial have indicated that all of the residents who were here when Miss Hollander's body was found in a lonely cemetery have formed their opinion as to Petras' guilt or innocence and prospects of getting a jury were getting darker.

Wealthy residents who were away during the winter heard little of the comment on the case and it is now believed it will be necessary to fill the jury box with them. Only five tentative jurymen have been selected of the 185 examined and these five all are subject to peremptory challenge.

HANNA'S RENOMINATION IS ASSURED.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 25.—Although returns from yesterday's state-wide primary election were not complete tonight, Governor Hanna's renomination was assured and it was estimated his plurality would reach 4,000.

United States Senator A. J. Gronna, Republican, also was renominated. The successful candidates in the Democratic contests are F. O. Hellstrom for governor and W. E. Purcell for United States senator.

UNSCRUPULOUS LABOR AGENTS CAUSE OF MUCH TROUBLE

Claims Business Men and Contractors Were Prevented From Making Complaint for Fear of Violence and Further Losses.

Chicago, June 25.—Contractors and business men have made numerous complaints of unscrupulous business agents of unions, but have been prevented from going before a grand jury by fear of personal violence and further business losses, according to a statement tonight by James S. Wilkerson, United States district attorney. The statement was the result of a charge by John J. McLaughlin, state representative, that labor agents by a campaign of blackmail and extortion had disrupted the relations between employers and employees here. McLaughlin will go before the United States grand jury tomorrow. Mr. Wilkerson asserted the state representative had a good case if he could support his charges by evidence.

McLaughlin made his charges in defense of Patrick Dignan, a teaming contractor who yesterday shot and killed George Hammond, business agent for the Excavators and Graders union. Dignan was arrested tonight and admitted that he had shot Hammond. The statement said that he had been threatened with death today when it became known that he had visited the United States authorities with charges of oppression by the labor agents.

Hammond had called a strike in McLaughlin's yards only a few hours before he met his death. McLaughlin charged the strike was called because he had refused to submit to further demands of the labor agent for cash.

SPECIAL GRAND JURY WILL INVESTIGATE BANK'S AFFAIRS

Mrs. Kuhns-Brady Makes Serious Charges Concerning Methods and Actions of Several Employees of LaSalle Street Bank.

Chicago, June 25.—A special grand jury will be called to investigate the affairs of the LaSalle Street Trust & Savings Bank, according to an announcement by Mayday Hoynes, state's attorney, after a conference with Mrs. Marie Kuhns-Brady today. Mrs. Brady is the wife of James J. Brady, dead attorney who is also investigating the bank's affairs. They were married in Michigan immediately after her divorce and she has a suit pending charging Brady with breach of promise in failing to re-marry her in Illinois after the expiration of a year from her divorce.

Mrs. Kuhns-Brady has made serious charges concerning the methods and actions of several employees of the bank as well as certain public officials," Mrs. Hoynes said. The state's attorney also declared Mrs. Brady had told him of padded payrolls and abuses in the pay of the state auditor. Mrs. Brady told the state's attorney that Frederick Porter, former chief clerk in the office of the state auditor, had resigned when his chief insisted that he issue a certificate of incorporation to the Ashland-Twelfth Bank when the clerk had reported the securities insufficient. The bank was one of the Lorimer-Munday chair and was closed by the bank examiner later.

James S. Wilkerson, federal district attorney who is also investigating the bank's affairs, intimated tonight that approximately $500,000 had been loaned on practically worthless securities while the bank was under government supervision.

JUDGE OF CIRCUIT COURT OF SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT DIES

Judge W. C. Johns Dies in San Francisco—Had Been in Ill Health for Several Years.

Decatur, Ill., June 25.—Judge W. C. Johns for more than eleven years judge of the circuit court of the sixth judicial district of Illinois, died in San Francisco Thursday afternoon after being in ill health several years. Judge Johns was elected to the bench in 1903 and again in 1909, his second term expiring June 15th, 1915. His death leaves but one circuit judge, W. C. Cochran in this district. A primary election will be held Saturday to name candidates to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Solon Philbrick. Judge Johns' place will be filled by appointment by Governor Dunne.

At the time of death Judge Johns was on his way to pass the summer in Honolulu with Rear Admiral Charles Moore, Mrs. Moore being his sister.

The business men of Franklin have designated July 29, 30, 31 and August 1 as the time of their homecoming, and ample preparations are being made for the event.

BIGGEST MERCANTILE FAILURE IN U.S. HISTORY

RECEIVERS ARE APPOINTED FOR H. B. CLAFFIN COMPANY OF NEW YORK

Assets of Great Dry Goods Company Are Said to Be $44,000,000, While It Is Estimated They Owe Over $30,000,000—United Dry Goods Co. and the Associated Merchants' Co. Are Not Involved in the Failure.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The biggest mercantile failure in the history of the United States was precipitated today when receivers were appointed for the H. B. Claffin company of this city. The company, it is estimated, owes more than $30,000,000, which at the present time it is unable to pay. Its assets are said to be $44,000,000.

John Claffin, head of the company and its chief individual stockholder, is the owner of a chain of thirty other dry goods enterprises throughout the country, which are involved in the failure. Receivers for several of these were named today and similar action, it was announced, would be taken in the case of the rest. Their business will be continued under receiver's management until their financial affairs have been adjusted.

From 3,000 to 5,000 banks in all parts of the United States compose the bulk of the Claffin creditors. They hold notes aggregating the major part of the liabilities. These notes are said to have been issued by the various Claffin stores, endorsed by J. B. Claffin company and the proceeds used, when discounted in financing their needs. The United Dry Goods company, a $51,000,000 corporation financed several years ago by J. P. Morgan & Co., to take over other Claffin interests, is not involved in the failure. Neither is the Associated Merchants' company, owned by the United Dry Goods company, and which in turn owns one-half of the H. B. Claffin company and a number of other large stores, principally in New York.

Mr. Claffin, who was president of both the United Dry Goods and Associated Merchants' companies, resigned those positions today and it is understood that when the H. B. Claffin company is reorganized its connection with both the former companies will be permanently severed. Cornelius N. Bliss, son of the late New York dry goods merchant of that name, was elected to succeed him.

Due to Shift of Trade Centers.

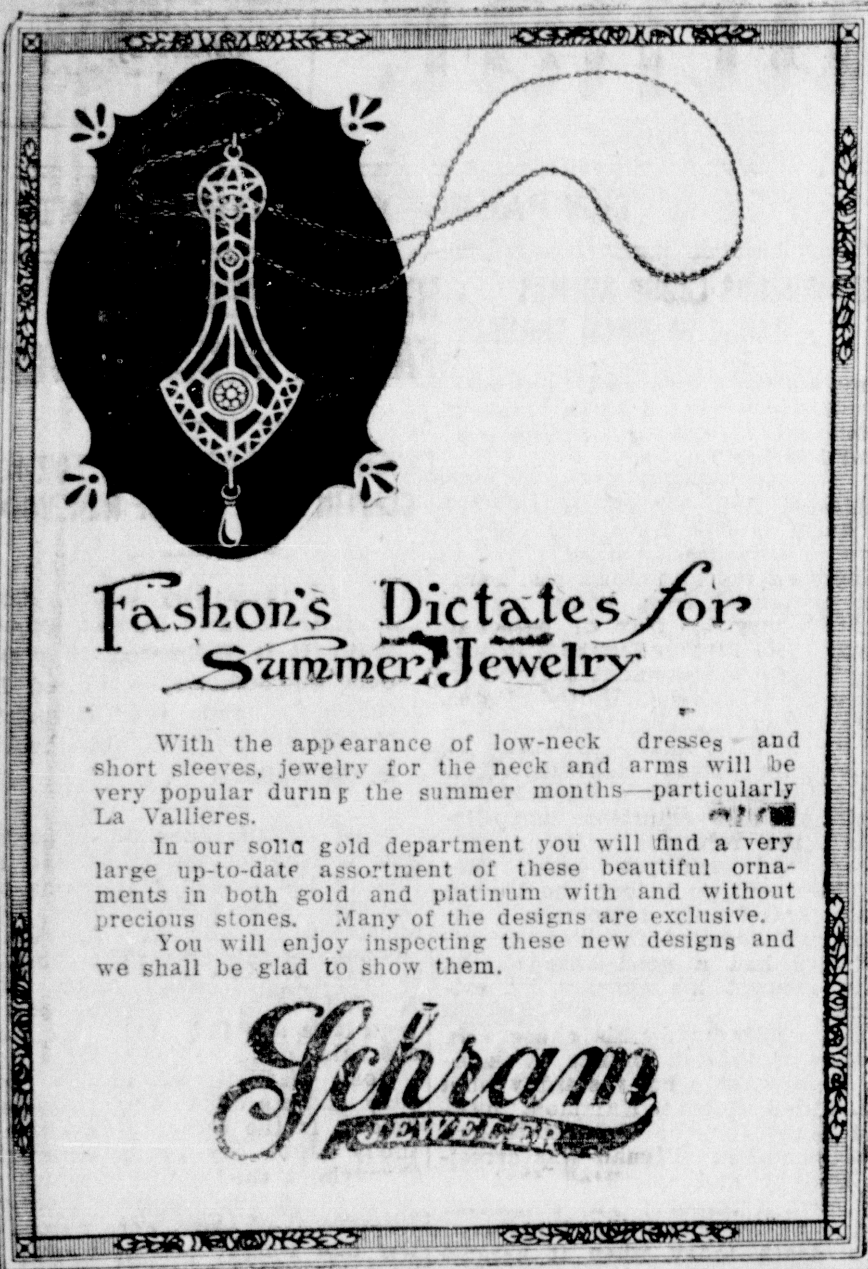

According to Mr. Claffin, the failure was due to the unprecedented shifting of trade centers in New York City, which compelled the concern to rely mainly upon its retail stores in other cities for its profits.

"The rapidly extending business," he said, "occasioned large capital requirements which we have not been able to meet."

The crash came today after vain efforts had been made by Claffin to induce J. P. Morgan & Co. and other Wall street banking interests to loan him money to tide over his embarrassment. These bankers, it was learned, advanced the company several million dollars about two weeks ago, but the hundreds of note-holding banks throughout the country continued to press their claims until it became known that practically the whole $31,000,000 would have to be raised to save the company from failure. Mr. Claffin, at a conference with J. P. Morgan, J. S. Alexander, president of the National Bank of Commerce; Albert H. Wiggin, president of the Chase National bank, and other financiers, made a last appeal, but the decision went against him. The bankers believed a receivership and reorganization of the H. B. Claffin company, which would include its separation from the United Dry Goods company and the Associated Merchants' company, was the wisest course to pursue.

Court Appoints Receiver.

Today John W. Eames, vice president of the H. B. Claffin company, filed a friendly suit in equity against it, alleging that it was unable to present to meet its liabilities. It was admitted by the company and Judge Hand in the federal court appointed as receivers Joseph B. Martindale, president of the Chemical National bank, and Frederick A. Juilliard, a dry goods merchant. Almost simultaneously a petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed by the three merchandise creditors, whose attorneys announced they would seek the appointment of other receivers. In this action subpoenas were issued for Mr. Claffin, Mr. Eames and Dexter N. Force, treasurer of the company, to appear and show cause on or before July 2 why it should not be adjudged bankrupt. Immediate steps to protect the interests of the note holders and the merchandise creditors were taken by the appointment of committees representing each. The failure today marked the fourth financial crisis of the H. B. Claffin company since it was first established in this city in 1845, with the firm name of Bulkley & Claffin. From its humble beginning over seventy years ago the concern grew to be the greatest dry goods enterprise in the country and was the nucleus, together with other enterprises which John Claffin promoted, of the Associated Merchants' company and subsequently the United Dry Goods company, organized in 1909 with its $51,000,000 of capital stock. Its commercial notes, it was remarked in Wall street today, were accepted throughout the country almost as the equivalent of currency, so strong was its credit.

WHAT LINCOLN MIGHT SAY ON THE RAILROAD QUESTION

Howard Elliott of the Salt Lake Route Writes Striking Parallel of Famous Gettysburg Address—Lincoln Himself Was Railroad Attorney.

If Lincoln were alive today his position on the railroad question might coincide with the views of Howard Elliott, of the Salt Lake Route. In the following clever parallel of the address at Gettysburg. It has been pointed out that Lincoln himself was at one time an attorney for the Illinois Central and Rock Island lines. The following article so struck the fancy of the president of the road that he caused 5,000 copies to be printed and distributed.

Mr. Elliott is a brother-in-law of James Elliott of this city and resides in Los Angeles, Cal.

"Four score and ten years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new industry, conceived by private invention and dedicated to a quasi-public purpose of moving persons and property from place to place. Now we are engaged in a great economic war, testing whether that industry or any industry so conceived and so dedicated can long endure. We have reached a crisis in that war. We have come to the point where we must decide whether our great steel highways, built and operated as private companies, and supervised by the government, can continue in their present form and be allowed to earn a reasonable return on the fair value of property devoted to the public service, or whether that business, encompassed by regulations impossible of fulfillment, shall be made unprofitable and then be taken over by the government. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should discuss this. But in a larger sense, we should discuss it only with realization of its economic effect, without bias, and with careful deliberation upon complete survey of the facts. The brave men living and dead who struggled to perfect the science of railroadroading have dedicated to society a transportation machine that commands the admiration and respect of all mankind. The world will little note nor long remember what we say, but it will never forget what they did. It is for us, who remain, to dedicate ourselves to the great task remaining before us, that we here highly resolve that their efforts shall not have been in vain—that this industry, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that private enterprise under public direction shall not perish from our land."

HIGH SCHOOL QUESTION TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

Suit Brought in District Four by J. S. Swain Commands Attention of Court Last Night.

As was stated in the Journal some time since, the directors of the county formed an organization to test the law requiring districts to pay tuition of pupils in a city high school.

Last evening J. C. Swain of Sinclair appeared as plaintiff in a friendly suit to test the validity of the law. John Cleary, president of the directors' organization, appeared as directing the suit. The arguments of the attorneys were heard and the court took the case under advisement and Judge Jones said he would try to decide it by August next.

Worthington, Reeve and Green appeared for Mr. Swain and Wilson and Brookhouse for the directors of district No. 4, whom Mr. Swain is asking to pay the tuition of two pupils in the Jacksonville high school.

The contention on behalf of the petitioner was that the act which provides high school privileges for graduates of the eighth grade in districts in which there is no high school is a complete law; that it does not in form, either in the title or body, purport to amend the general school law, and that it does not in effect amount to such an amendment of the school law as to render the act in question void as violating Section 13 of Article 4 of the constitution which provides that no law shall be amended by reference to its title only * * * but the act amended shall be inserted at length in the new act. It was further contended that although the act might amend the general school law by implication, that is not sufficient to bring it within the constitutional inhibition. It was also contended that the law does not need to be absolutely complete, but that it is valid if reasonably complete.

The defendant's contention was that the law is not complete and that there is no method for carrying the provisions into effect.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Miss Genevieve Herberster entertained a company of friends at Nichols Park in honor of her cousin Miss Victoria McCaughey of St. Mary's Academy in Quincy, who is spending her vacation in this city, Thursday afternoon. Those present included Doris Linderman, Louise Boston, Marie Sehey, Frances Sheehan, Maurine Linderman, Clara Sehey, Victoria McCaughey, Star Boston, Genevieve Herberster and Gladys Bailey of Peoria, who is the guest of the Misses Boston.

For Mrs. William Saunders Elliott of Chicago, who is a guest of relatives in the city, Mrs. Miller Weir entertained a limited number of friends Thursday afternoon at her home, 623 West State street.

BE GOOD AT THE PARK AND PLAY GROUND.

It is the determination of the park board to maintain good order and proper conduct at all the city places and to that end all sorts of dances of an improper character are strictly barred at the grand pavilion in Nichols park and any society guilty of violating this rule will not be permitted to dance there again. This rule will be rigidly enforced as far as is possible and every means will be taken to accomplish this purpose.

At the playground there has been some complaint of the rudeness of large boys. This is too bad for that place with its appliances primarily of the children of small size though there is no bar to older ones who are willing to go there and behave themselves but they must be good or stay away and if they trespass there is a custodian with police powers to arrest them and he has strict orders to do so.

They will go by train through points in Ohio and Indiana and later the family will leave for Lake Shawano, Wisconsin. Donald Swarthout will remain here with his summer class until the last of July when he and his family will join his brother in the trip north. The Messrs. How I Produced 12 Pounds of Beef From One Bushel of Corn.

I bought 44 cattle through Milton Marshall & Co., St. Louis, of Henry Wright, they averaged 961 pounds, March 19, 1914 in St. Louis. I put them in dry lots March 27th, fed them all they would clean up in 30 minutes, crushed corn, cob and all then cooked in the 50 bushel size Wood's Grain Softener.

I put them on grass May 25th, they averaged 1200 lbs. when put on grass. While in dry lot I gave each steer 5 lbs. clover hay. After they ate their grain, I kept oat straw before them all the time, but they would not eat over one bale of straw per day. I fed at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m., at regular hours.

I measured the grain fed with a No. 8 scoop, feeding 50 scoops at each feed or 100 scoops per day, all they would clean up. I put in 20 bushels ground cob corn and all into a 50 bushel vat. This will fill it making 50 bushels feed, which makes 4 feeds, all they will clean up. I drew 50 gallons of syrup off and added 50 gallons of water, then added 1-2 bushels of ground oats and shorts, with which I a mfeeded 80 pigs that are doing well.

I will feed the cattle about 30 days longer and would be glad to have any one interested come and see them.

JOHN HENRY MUST GO TO PENITENTIARY

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL IS OVERRULED.

Frank Nunes Granted New Trial Owing to Faulty Instruction to Jury—Henry Pleaded Guilty of Manslaughter in Three Cases—To Serve Sentence at Chester.

The trial of John Henry for the triple killing at Woodson in January has been brought to a close by a compromise agreed to by all parties to the suit and the terms are that the motion for a new trial be dismissed, that the defendant plead guilty to the charge of manslaughter in the case of William Ezard, Everett Crain and Howard Crain, that he be committed to penitentiary at Chester at hard labor first for the killing of Everett Crain and at the expiration of that time for the killing of Everett Crain and at the expiration of that time for the killing of Howard Crain.

A new trial is granted Frank Nunes owing to a faulty instruction given to the jury and the young man will be before the court at its next session. Court adjourned until Saturday at 1 p. m.

In the matter of the Henry case the arrangement came about after several attempts had been made for a settlement or agreement between the various persons concerned or interested. When the case was called Attorney Wm. N. Hartgrove appeared and stated that his client would plead guilty as stated and Mr. Henry came forward and signed a jury waiver and the court asked him if he fully understood what he was doing and he replied in the affirmative. The court then stated the sentence to be at hard labor in the penitentiary at Chester until liberated according to law. This formality was gone through with in each of the three cases and the court merely remarked that it was a long time.

Henry Moved to Tears.

While standing before the judge Mr. Henry was unmoved but when he took his chair he broke down and wept for some time. His faithful wife who has stood by him from first to last, and other relatives comforted him all they could and several others, among them attorneys for the prosecution, shook his hand and expressed sincere sympathy for him.

The case is now in the hands of the board of pardons which will have the determination of the duration of the various sentences. Each may be for life, the prisoner may be paroled if the board sees fit or the term may be lessened by good behavior. Of course regarding this all is conjecture. The minimum would be a few years and probably about fifteen though nothing definite is known as the board of pardons will have various things to take into account.

Mrs. Crain was asked to come to the city and she in conjunction with Isaac Watson, Stansfield Baldwin and Mr. Reid of the Anti-Horse Thief Association discussed the matter with the attorneys and every effort was made to have a full and free understanding and no urgency was used at all, each party being fully aware of all that was pending and ready to do what seemed best.

Mr. Watson and the other two said that they desired justice and to do their duty by the public and the organization to which they belong and they acted conscientiously and intelligently.

Mr. Henry's father and several other members of the family were present and all were visibly affected by the decision. After a time the deputy sheriff took the prisoner to jail and he will be taken to Chester by Sheriff Rogers in due time.

The Nunes Case. The Nunes case attracted a considerable amount of attention also. The motion for a new trial was based on two matters. The first was an instruction given by the court to the jury and was as follows:

"And if the jury believes that any witness knowingly and wilfully and falsely testified to any material fact in the case then the jury has a right and it is their duty wholly to ignore the testimony of such witness unless the testimony of such witness is corroborated by the testimony of other reliable witnesses in the case or by facts and circumstances proved on the trial."

The defense by Mr. Butler made an elaborate argument against this instruction as taking away the prerogatives of the jury in that it was made mandatory by the court. In reply T. F. Smith spoke at some length and read various decisions on the subject. The supreme court has never passed directly on such a question and hence the matter was subject to lengthy argument.

Mrs. Fortado Testifies.

The other matter was peculiar. Mrs. Ida Fortado, daughter of Antonio Nunes who was shot, testified that she was with her father the morning after he was shot and also heard his dying declaration. She averred that several times she asked him who shot him and he said every time he didn't know but added that it was a good thing he was shot for if he had not been shot he would have killed the whole family. He admitted he had been drinking some but said the wound was not serious and he would be out in a short time.

These statements were in direct contradiction to much of the testimony at the trial and if admitted would have been a serious matter. William Nunes and T. F. Smith both made affidavit that they were present with Antonio Nunes at the time and all the time during which Mrs. Fortado said she was in his room and heard him make the statements to which she swore and they swore she was not there at all.

New Trial Granted.

An evening session was held and pictures was also given last night.

The late rains have been the making of the corn crop, which will include 5,000 acres. Mr. Fairbanks' brother, the Hon. Charles Fairbanks, former vice president of the United States, expects to be at the ranch shortly.

BAR ASSOCIATION HAS OPINION ON DUNNE'S CHOICE.

There appears to be a strong sentiment among the members of the local bar association that the man whom Governor Dunne appoints to fill out the one year unexpired term of the late Judge R. B. Shirley, should be an attorney who would not be a candidate for the office at the regular election. There are a number of men who are more advanced in years who could fill the place with ability but who would not wish to run for office. It is understood that aside from the candidates named in Wednesday's Journal, Hon. J. M. Riggs of Winchester would accept the position.

FOURNIER AND BODIE SCORE WINNING TALLY.

Russell Hands Detroit Their Two Run by Bases on Balls and an Error—Other American League Results.

Chicago, June 25.—Fournier's triple and Bodie's single in the ninth enabled Chicago to win the sixth straight game today when they defeated Detroit by 3 to 2.

Russell had practically handed the visitors their two, one on his bases on balls, maturing into the first run and his error of a sacrifice allowing the other run to score. His double, however, in the first after two men were out following Mayer's single and Breton's double, enabled the locals to count two. The score:

FIFTEEN CREWS MEET AT Poughkeepsie TODAY

Annual Regatta of Intercollegiate Rowing Association Will Decide Championship.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 25.—Along a course historic with the memories of former aquatic struggles college crews representing the east, the middle west and the far west are matched to try conclusions in their racing shells tomorrow in the annual regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing association on the Hudson river.

As usual three events are scheduled for the day, the two mile race of the university four oared shells, the freshman eight-oared two mile race, and the university eight-oared race over a 4-mile course for the 'varsity challenge cup, which for the past year has been in the keeping of the Syracuse navy.

Chief interest, of course, centers in the 'varsity eights, which is the biggest aquatic event of the year in American waters. The institutions represented in this event will be the same as last year, namely, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Columbia, Wisconsin, Syracuse and the university of Washington.

Although open pool selling is not permitted, there is keen interest among the backers of the various crews today and many individual wagers are being placed. Cornell, Syracuse and Columbia money appears to be most abundant. Cornell appears to be the favorite in all three races, although Syracuse is finding many backers. Columbia has many admirers who appear confident that the blue and white will finish well to the fore in the big race of the day. The coaches of all six today expressed satisfaction with the work of their men, but none would venture a prediction on the results of the regatta.

The Washington crew have again added greatly to the interest of the regatta by coming 3,000 miles to meet the eastern colleges. Physically they are the equal of any of the men on the river, but the belief is that they have not had the training to make them dangerous competitors of the other colleges, who have had years the services of the best professional coaches.

Tomorrow's race will mark the twentieth annual event held here under the auspices of the American Intercollegiate Rowing association. It was in 1895 that the Poughkeepsie-Highland course was selected by the association, then composed of Columbia, Cornell and Pennsylvania.

Columbia won the first race, and has never finished first since. In 1896 Harvard having disagreed with Yale and severed athletic relations, made a two years agreement with Cornell and was admitted as a contestant on the Hudson. Cornell won that race for 'varsity eights, and made what was at that time a world's record for four miles of 19 minutes, 29 seconds. In the year following Harvard and Yale made up their differences, and were anxious to resume their old relations. Harvard would not break its contract with Cornell and was unwilling to row two races in different places, so Yale had to come to the Hudson. The crew from New Haven refused to race against Columbia and Pennsylvania and Cornell had to row two races. Cornell won both events—a week apart. Yale established a record of 9 minutes for the freshmen crew race over the two mile course.

In 1898 Harvard and Yale went back to New London, and Cornell competed there and also at Saratoga lake, there being no racing at Poughkeepsie. Cornell declined to row two races in different places in 1899 and returned to the Hudson. Yale and Harvard declined an invitation to compete at Poughkeepsie, and since then have kept to the New London course.

Wisconsin made its first appearance in the 'varsity race in 1899, beating Cornell and Columbia and crowding Pennsylvania hard for first place. Georgetown entered first in 1900 and was represented regularly for eight years. From 1903 to 1912 there were but five contesting crews in the big race. In 1913 Leland Stanford sent a crew and last year the University of Washington made up the sixth entry. For a newcomer the Washington eight did remarkably well, finishing third in the big race and only two seconds behind Cornell.

Since 1900 Cornell has won the 'varsity eight oared race ten times and has usually added to its laurels by cleaning up one or both of the other events on the regatta program. During the same period Syracuse has scored three victories and Pennsylvania one victory in the eight oared races. Wisconsin has finished second several times, but has yet to cross the finishing line first in the big race.

Buffalo 6; Pittsburgh 2. Buffalo, June 25.—Earl Moore held Pittsburgh to two singles today, winning for the locals 6 to 2.

Hal Chase fielded two innings and was at bat once before Sheriff Becker served papers on him in the injunction suit brought by the American League to restrain him from playing with the Federals. He struck out. The score:

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

CLAFLIN TROUBLE DOMINATES THE STOCK EXCHANGE

Despite Unfavorable Conditions
Market Gives Fairly Good Account of Itself

TRADING IS ON LARGE SCALE

NEW YORK, June 25.—Considering the unfavorable conditions with which the session began—the Claf-lin receivership—today's stock market gave a fairly good account of itself. The troubles of this country, one of the largest in the country, became known soon after the close of business on Wednesday, and the financial community viewed the prospect with considerable concern. Trading throughout today's session was on an uncommonly large scale, the turnover approximating half a billion shares. Activity was altogether at the expense of values, however, many prominent issues declining 1 to 2 points, while some of the obscure stocks fell from 3 to 5 points. United Drygoods preferred, which is affiliated with the Claflin interests, declined to 65, a loss of 17 points on the day and a total decline of 31 1/2 in two days.
The shares of other mercantile companies were sentimentally affected, but not to any marked extent.

Generally prices were lower,
but standard stocks held remarkably firm until the final hour, when another active selling movement effaced the partial recovery made at noon and sent the entire list to a new level. The late selling was attended by more unfavorable news, including the reduction of the Wells-Fargo express dividend failure of a Claflin subsidiary and unfavorable railway returns for May. London was active in the initial trading, selling about 25,000 shares. Europe's big banks made favorable weekly exhibits.

DIFFICULTY IN RESTRAINING TRADERS' BULLISH ACTIVITY

Packers Endeavor to Restrain Bullish Activity of Hog Market Speculators—Limited Supply of Cattle—Trade Active.

Chicago, June 25.—Packers are experiencing considerable difficulty in restraining bullish activity on the part of the hog market speculators.
Ignoring the punishment administered yesterday, "the boys" reinstated early Wednesday prices, an $8.40 top being recorded. Good hogs sold largely at $8.30 to $8.35, but there was a lot of packing and up and down mixed stuff at $8.15 to $8.25.

Cattle trade was active to the extent of a limited supply, much of the crop being direct to packers.
The advance of the last three weeks has put steers 25 to 50c above the season's low spot. The short supply of live muttons warranted a steady market. There were 69,000 hogs at eleven points, against 80, 000 last week and 91,000 a year ago.

Midweek cattle receipts were below advance car report indications, and when direct stuff from other markets to packers had been deducted shortage was evident. That the winter made crop of corn-fed bullcows has been closely garnered as an open secret. Kansas City was light, but St. Louis had a lot of half-fat cattle out of parched Missouri pastures and they made little benefit of poor quality. The market was strong, with 10c higher spots, many bullcows being 40c higher than the low point two weeks back.
In the main it was an $8.25 to $8.75 crop of steers. Other features of the market showed little change.

protects horses and cows from flies and mosquitoes. Applied with a hand sprayer, only a very thin spray over the hair of the animal, —not soaked to the skin—forms a protective coating that repels insects. The cost is trifling; time of applying less than one minute; lasts for six to eight hours—usually, there are times during hot, sultry weather, when flies are unusually numerous. It may take a more frequent application. Three sizes 25 cts., 50 cts., $1.00. Sample 50 cts.

REPRESENTATIVE T. E. LYON CANDIDATE FOR RENOMINATION

Springfield, Ill., June 25.—Representative Thomas E. Lyon of Springfield will seek re-election to the lower house of the general assembly from the Forty-fifth district.

Mr. Lyon is ending his third term in the house. His first service was in the Forty-sixth general assembly, where he established a reputation as one of the progressive republicans who always stood for good bills.

In former elections he has received strong support from Morgan county, due to the interest he has consistently shown in his constituents there as well as in Sangamon.

Mr. Lyon stood by the voters' choice in the senatorial contests in the assembly. He introduced the commission form of government bill and worked for it until its passage was secured in the Forty-seventh general assembly. As a matter of conviction he has maintained throughout his service an unwavering stand in favor of all reasonable legislation that would tend to lessen permanently the evils of the liquor traffic. He worked for the passage of the compulsory road drag law with a reasonable compensation for such work and for the narrowing of all except the main thoroughfares to forty feet. He voted for civil service, voted for the election of United States senators by direct vote, voted for the woman's suffrage bill, and secured a place on the appropriations committee in the Forty-eighth assembly for the express purpose of working to keep down expenses without crippling the state charitable, penal or educational institutions.

The Legislature Voters' League's estimate of Mr. Lyon is: "Ending his third term with a uniformly good record. An efficient representative."—adv.

Corns Go, Sure Pop, If You Use "Gets-It"

Simple As A B C. It's the New Way of Curing Corns and Calluses.

If you have corns now, the chances are you have never used "GETS-IT," the biggest seller among corn cures ever known. It is the new way, does away with all trouble, pain and fussing in treating corns. Thousands who have pattered with old corns for years, have gotten rid of them right off, with a few drops of "GETS-IT," applied as quick as you can spell your name. Corns just love to be cut, picked, filed, gouged and pulled. Quit it. You've tried cotton rings that cause shooting corn pains, gritty solvers that spread over the toe and make it raw and tape that sticks to the stocking—now try "GETS-IT." It has none of the drawbacks of the old style corn cures, eases pain and never fails on any corn or callus. "GETS-IT" is sold by all druggists, 25c a bottle, or sent direct, by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

SENATOR CLARK RETURNS FROM TRIP OF INSPECTION

Montana Senator Gives His Approval of Site Selected For State Building at San Diego.

San Diego, Calif., June 25.—Former United States Senator W. A. Clark of Montana, whose personal gift of $10,000 guaranteed extensive participation by his state in the San Diego 1915 exposition, has just returned after an inspection of the progress at the grounds. He gave his approval of the site selected for the Montana building in the exact center of the Plaza Internacional, and announced the state commission officials would be here in ten days to direct the construction work.

Directly across from the Montana building will be the Utah state representation, and adjoining that the building of the state of Washington. Work on all three will be started at about the same time, and shortly afterward there will be an official announcement of the exhibits to be housed there.

With these state buildings under way plans for the others, the state and county group, will be submitted and work started. Practically all of this group will be on the lower plateau entered from the Plaza de Panama, the center of the grounds. The lower part of this plaza is flanked by the San Joaquin Valley and the Kern and Tulare counties buildings, both of the palatial residence type of the Spanish colonial school.

Senator Clark spent several hours on the grounds and expressed a lively satisfaction with the progress made. He added that the Montana exhibit will be a surprise to visitors unaware of Montana's resources. He expects to return to San Diego before the exposition opens January 1.

All furniture for the Utah state building at San Diego will be made by the pupils of the state's manual training schools. Contests have been instituted in the schools and the prize specimens will furnish the different halls of the building. At the end of 1915 they will be sent back to the schools that supplied them, as trophies.

5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

1. HODGDON, ME.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Me.

2. CHARLOTTE, N. C.—"I was in bad health for two years, with pains in both sides and was very nervous. I had a growth which the doctor said was a tumor, and I never would get well unless I had an operation. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I gladly say that I am now enjoying fine health."—Mrs. ROSA SIMS, 16 Winona St., Charlotte, N. C.

3. HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a severe operation, but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it."—Mrs. ADA WILT, 196 Stock St., Hanover, Pa.

4. DECATUR, ILL.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation as I had something growing in my left side. I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I tell other women what it has done for me."—Mrs. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2300 Blk. East William Street, Decatur, Ill.

5. CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I was very irregular and for several years my side pained me so that I expected to have to undergo an operation. Doctors said they knew of nothing that would help me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I became regular and free from pain. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 7305 Madison Av., Cleveland, O.

RUMORED DEATH OF GEORGE PEAK CREATED A SENSATION THURSDAY

The Story Was Killed While in the Formation Stage.

Early Thursday morning a Journal man was stopped on West State street by a friend and asked if he knew what caused the sudden death of George Peak. The writer, as an admirer of Mr. Peak, was stunned and immediately started on the trail. Ed White dispelled the gloom when he stated positively that George would be at the track behind his horses to the afternoon.

The rumor started when some one on the street was retelling the details of the Carey death at Winchester the day previous.

Three of George S. Peak's friends who attended the races Thursday afternoon would be willing to write a long-time risk on his life. He looks in the best of health and barring accidents he will circulate in our midst for many years to come.

Henry Vedder, an attendant, went to the man as soon as he saw him fall, gave the patient some water and called a doctor, but the man expired before the physician arrived. The witnesses at the inquest were Henry Vedder and Dr. C. R. Lowe. The jury was composed of M. H. Havenhill, foreman; W. T. Jones, Thomas S. Yates, Lloyd Reynolds, Peter Tilton and C. G. Robinson, clerk.

WHERE ILLINOIS COLLEGE COMMENCEMENTS WERE HELD

Exercises of 1843 Took Place in Natural Amphitheatre—Interesting Data Compiled By Mr. Ensley Moore.

The Rev. John B. Fairbank told me that the commencement exercises of 1842 were held in a natural amphitheatre, where the lot at the northwest corner of Mound avenue and Woodland Place is now.

At that time the College Grove extended from just west of what is now Beecher Hall to the road west of Dr. T. J. Pitner's present residence—"Fairview," as he calls it. Mr. Fairbank said he helped to clear away the brush, and to arrange the planks, picnic fashion, for the seats. The rise of the ground was to the north and west, and the platform for speaking from was to the south, or centre of the present lot. There were good trees, and the place made a fine thing for the purpose. In the class of 1842 were Wm. P. Bradley, A. W. Estabrook, T. J. C. Fagg (still living), Samuel B. Fairbank, Jeremiah Low, Azel S. Lyman and Jackson Dewey Whitney.

My uncle, the Hon. Wm. C. Goudy, late of Chicago, told me his class, that of 1845, held their exercises in the same place.

In 1847 the First Presbyterian church built an edifice for worship on the lot, almost exactly where the Journal office now stands. The whole church lot was then bounded by State, West and Morgan streets and the alley east of Gallagher block. The church, building was of brick, with a wooden steeple, and was a very pretty and creditable one for its day. It was destroyed by fire in December, 1861.

In that building I looked upon the first junior exhibition of Illinois college that I ever attended. It was in March or April, 1859.

The class of 1859 had their commencement exercises then in June, 1859. The class consisted of Edmund H. Bristow, Wm. P. Callon, Ephraim Dayton, John M. Eaman, Edward B. Eno, Henry N. Estabrook, Samuel T. Gaty, Wm. Gill, Wm. W. Jones, Edward McConnell, Albert Reed, Lyman C. Reed, George L. Roberts, D. W. Tindall and Richmond Wolcott. That was the first commencement I ever attended. Singularly, I only recall seeing two persons there, that is, remembering doing so. One was Richmond Wolcott. The other was Bailey D. Dawson. The first time I recall seeing him.

Next year, 1860, the exercises were held in the eastern end of the College Grove, just northwest of the present home of the president. There was a fence clear across from College avenue to Mound avenue, then separating this little eastern point of the grove from the main part, further west. The graduates were: Franklin Adams, John A. Ballard, Thos. Booth, Chas. S. Brown, Robert H. Bulkley, Wm. H. Edgar, William L. English, Elisha B. Hamilton, David B. and John A. Smith, John B. and Wm. H. Turner. None are living of the class of 1859. Bulkley, Edgar and John B. Turner survive of the class of 1860.

Strawn's Hall, afterwards called Opera House, was opened in 1861, and I think, commencements were held there until about 1875 or 1880. It should have been said that (I think) the exercises of 1858 were held in the then new Congregational church—still used as such.

It may be remarked here that many of the graduating exercises of the academy, the Young Ladies Atheneum and the Methodist Female college, now the Illinois Woman's college, were held in Strawn's Hall. It was an ample and fine place, with good acoustic qualities.

It was there that my own class of 1868 was graduated on June 4, on a very rainy day. The members of the class were: Edward A. and Geo. C. Barber, Robert H. Beggs, Wm. F. Fayerweather, Franklin M. McCann, Joseph A. Meek, Geo. W. Miller, Ensley Moore, Jas. E. Munroe, Alfred A. Paxson and George W. Williams. In those days each member of the class spoke. It was about 1880, or perhaps in 1882, under President Tanner's administration, that the graduating exercises began to be held in the small grove between Sturtevant Hall and the Jones building.

The exercises of 1893 were begun in this little grove first referred to, but when they were about half over it began to rain. The assembly then adjourned to the Jones building and the flow of oratory continued. That was the year of the Spanish war, and in view of the absence of Dobyns and one or two others in the army, their chairs were decorated with the flag, and their diplomas were handed out just the same. The class was made up of C. Otis Boston, V. J. Conhenour, Earl G. Cowdin, B. C. Darling, Wm. E. Deane, John S. Dobyns, M. G. Frampton, Michael H. Grassly, Jas. C. Lathrop, Wm. Walter Moore, W. H. Palmer, Fred O. Philbrook, Chas. Ernest Read, W. Edgar Sampson, Louis H. Schroeder, Frederick C. Tanner and Wm. Lester Wemple.

The Civil War cut into the attendance at the college so much that there was no class to be graduated in 1863, but exercises were held on the usual day in Strawn's Hall; speeches being made by various men or less prominent citizens. One was Frank Adams, son of Dr. Samuel Adams, of the class of 1860. He was then a lieutenant. I think, and was home on furlough. He became a captain and was brevetted major and lieutenant colonel.

FIRST HARNESS MATINEE FURNISHES GOOD SPORT

FIELDS ARE SMALL, BUT CONTESTS ARE KEEN.

Matinee Is Accorded Very Slim Attendance—Race Between Jackey Johnson a Hair Raiser, the Horses Finishing a Neck Apart in the Three Heats.

The first matinee of the Jacksonville Driving club Thursday was off to a bad start, but the finish of the races was a good one. The start was bad from the fact that those having the affair in hand made the egregious error of not advertising sufficiently, with the result that a turnstile was not necessary to enumerate the attendance.

The fields in the four events were short; in the only the second, were there more than two starters. The best of feeling prevailed between the drivers and the sport furnished was good enough for anybody's money. The third race, in which Scott County finished by a neck in front of Greene county, was a thriller throughout the three heats. At no time in any of the heats were the two horses apart more than a throat lash and the finish in the three heats was neck and neck, with Jackey Johnson, handled by George Peak of Winchester, poking its nose in front of the wire.

The second race, too, for three heats—it took four to decide the winner—was a corker. Roxy Rex, handled by John Pate, is a level headed horse, and was in danger only once, and that was in the third heat, when it broke twenty feet from the wire and allowed Barney Edward to get the verdict by a head, after Scott Green placed the latter on its feet after a long stretch run.

The first race was a walkover for Baron Custer, with Green behind her. This was best two in three heats, and the Baron at no time was extended to beat Baldface Alice, with George Peak up.

The fourth race was for green pacers and was won by Lady-I-Must from Clark Green's stable. Dan K., handled by McDaniels, is a likely looking horse, which appeared to be track green, because at the turns it insisted on taking them wide. McDaniels, who is a splendid driver and an all around horseman, will shortly grab that fault.

The following are the summaries: First Race—For trotters in the three minute class. Start good; finished easy.

Baron Custer (Green) 1 1 Baldface Alice (Peak) 2 2 Time, 1:23½, 1:24.

Second Race—For trotting horses in the three minute class. Start fair; won breezing.

Roxy Rex (Pate) 1 1 2 1 Barney Edward (Green) 2 2 1 2 Duke's Alice (Peak) 3 3 3 dr Time, 1:18, 1:15, 1:14, 1:14.

Third Race—For horses never trotting better than 2:20. Start good; won driving.

Jackey Johnson (Peak) 1 1 1 Robert C. (Coker) 2 2 2 Time, 1:11, 1:09, 1:11½.

Fourth Race—For green pacers. Start good; won driving.

Lady-I-Must (Green) 1 1 1 Dan K. (McDaniels) 2 2 2 Time, 1:07, 1:09½, 1:09½.

Judges—C. R. Thomas, Roodhouse; Charles Amos, Roodhouse; J. H. Piper, Whitehall.

Timers—Charles Thomson, H. H. Massey, Scott B. Green.

Stretch patrol—A. D. Arnold.

Caught in the Stretch. Spec. Woods of Franklin had little difficulty in picking John Pate to win with Roxy Rex.

George Hogan, master in chancery at Winchester and ex-sheriff of Scott county, announced his arrival when his auto "shot a tire" just north of the grand stand.

James and Ralph Overton from Winchester were good boosters for Scott county.

Henry Pioninger of Alsey, Ill., made several suspicious glances in the direction of the lemonade and cherry cheer booth.

Louis Rexroat of Concord sat in the grand stand and kept tab on all finishes as well as on the judges.

TO HAVE PAVING PLANT.

Edmonton, Alta., June 25.—The city of Edmonton has arranged to establish its own paving plant. It is to cost about $37,000 and will be in operation within 30 days. It is planned to lay about 100,000 square yards of paving before the close of the season. This will provide work through the summer and fall for a large number of men who are now unemployed. Mayor McNamara said today that the plan is to operate the municipal paving plant in competition with independent companies, with a view of lessening the cost and keeping the money at home. The entire paving program for this year involves a total expenditure of more than $1,500,000, part of which will be financed by the Hudson's Bay company.

Representative—L. O. Vaught, Jacksonville.

"CRIMSON J" OUT.

The 1914 "Crimson J" of the Jacksonville High school has just come from the press. It is a beautiful piece of work and reflects no little praise upon the graduating class.

The cover is of dark maroon with a gold corner cover print.

Probably the most clever part of the entire book is the unique arrangement of the class photos. They are arranged four to a page in a very elaborate half-tone panel. It contains a great number of half-tones illustrating high school life in its various phases for the past school year. The cartoon work done by Kenneth Berryman is original and contains the necessary "snap."

The "Crimson J" staff includes Eugene Sutherland, editor-in-chief; Chas. Widmayer, business manager; Robert Nesmith, assistant editor; Kenneth Berryman, artist; Grace Potter, classes; Bess Pyatt, classes; Leonard I. Wood, athletics; Merle Reynolds, organizations; George Coe, jokes.

An error was made by the Yateville correspondent in stating that Roy Creel was ill at the home of his parents in Prentice. He is in Peabody, Kansas.
